Petition for Action on Conditions of Pretrial Release

COMES NOW Erik Carlson, PRETRIAL SERVICES OFFICER, presenting an official report upon the conduct of defendant Alycia Jean Scott, who was placed under pretrial release supervision by the Honorable U.S. Magistrate Judge John T. Rodgers sitting in the Court at Spokane, Washington, on the 30th day of September 2014 under the following conditions:

Defendant shall advise the supervising Pretrial Services Officer and defense counsel within one business day of any charge arrest, or contact with law enforcement. Defendant shall not work for the United States government or any federal or state law enforcement agency, unless Defendant first notifies the supervising Pretrial Services Officer in the captioned matter.

Special Condition: Defendant shall complete treatment indicated by an evaluation or recommended by Pretrial Services and shall comply with all rules of a treatment program. Defendant shall be responsible for the cost of testing, evaluation and treatment, unless the United States Probation Office should determine otherwise. The United States Probation Office shall also determine the time and place of testing and evaluation and the scope of treatment. If Defendant fails in any way to comply or cooperate with the requirements and rules of a treatment program, Pretrial Services shall notify the Court and the U.S. Marshal, who will be directed to immediately arrest the Defendant.

Special Condition #14: Avoid all contact, direct or indirect, with known felons or co-defendants.

Special Condition #19: Prohibited Substance Testing. Such methods may be used with random frequency and include urine testing, the wearing of a sweat patch, a remote alcohol testing system, and/or any form of prohibited substance screening or testing. Defendant shall refrain from obstructing or attempting to obstruct or tamper, in any fashion, with the efficiency and accuracy of prohibited substance testing. Full mutual releases shall be executed to permit communication between the court, Pretrial Services, and the treatment vendor. Treatment shall not interfere with Defendant's court appearances.
